Washington City Zoning Ordinance Chapter 11-5.1-Application for Permit. Application for a permit to place or construct a sign in any location shall be submitted to the City on the City's standard building permit form, along with the associated site plan, building elevation plans showing the locations, dimension, materials, colors and copy of all existing and proposed signs. . . The expiration date for the completion of such permit shall be one hundred eighty (180) days from the time the permit is obtained. The Zoning Administrator or the designated representative may consider the substantial effort toward completion in extending a permit, if the sign is not completed in the allotted time.
